

INFINITY FILM FESTIVAL PROGRAMME APRIL 2021

LESSON 7

Directed by Neil Linpow
Written by Hunter Andrews & Neil Linpow
Produced by Neil Linpow & Colm McCarthy

"This tight and tense thriller packs a hell of a lot of atmosphere into just six minutes. Superbly paced with fantastic sound and direction"

BILL

Produced, Written & Directed by Jeremy Munro

"A feel-good, sweet story that says so much without even needing to say a word, with a warm and honest central performance"

LIKE I SAID

Written & Directed by Jolyon White
Produced by George White, Murray Woodfield & Sophie Daniel

"Drawing on frustrations we all know, this film perfectly captures and pokes fun at life's annoyances through a well crafted screenplay"

CHIMICHANGA DAY

Produced, Written & Directed by Vladislav Dubkov

"Through a colourful, creative art style, experience your favourite superheroes' love for Mexican cuisine and enjoy all the light hearted chaos that follows"

UNWIND 2

Directed by Hoffman West

"Take a nostalgic look back and a formidable look forward as you re-live the anxieties of growing up, moving on and staying close to those who mean the most"

MONSTER

Directed by Reiff Gaskell
Written by Rebecca Deane
Produced by Rebecca Deane

"That stomach churning feeling you have when something is inherently wrong carries throughout this film, unnerving you right till the very end"

ROTARY

Directed by Julie Martin

"Quirky, wonderful and lovingly bizzare. Rotary showcases the filmmaker's skill and imagination through different mediums of animation"

SOLITUDE

Directed by Fabio Grossi
Written & Produced by Fabio Grossi & Luca Di Nicolantonio

"With enigmatic cinematography, this passionate and thought-provoking piece captures the intense emotions surrounding confusion, lust and love"

SAMEN (TOGETHER)

Directed by Rosanne Gjaltema & Tyson Malaihollo

"This tender documentary makes you reflect on life's important issues, while respectfully and beautifully giving an insight into a groups shared grief"

MEETING

Written & Directed by Martin Keady

"Zoom meetings are awkward at the best of times, but the feeling is tangible for the characters as they try and navigate their emotions through a screen"

SCARLET CIRCLE

Directed by Ryan Cervasio
Written by Ryan Cervasio, Anthony Janz, Jeff Naviello & Gina Ziegler
Produced by FeYZa Cakici & Ryan Cervasio

"Telling a comedic story in under 3 minutes is difficult for any filmmaker. Scarlet Circle subverts your expectations and leaves you laughing"

SUNDOWN TOWN

Directed by Mylo Butler
Written by Mylo Butler & Jada Lewter
Produced by Tamia Bailey & YaJarrah Paul

"This poignant and brutally honest film shows us the horrors of racism and how abruptly a persons world can change because of prejudice"

YENDOR: THE JOURNEY OF A JUNIOR ADVENTURER

Produced, Written & Directed by Rodney Matthews & Sarah Matthews

"Dive into the nostalgia of your childhood as this animation, with a handcrafted storybook aesthetic, is read aloud like a bedtime story"

HE RANG

Directed by Sam Patzer
Written & Produced by Jorge Harrington

"All the classical elements of a slasher have been in this film; like Friday the 13th with a mobile phone"

IN ISOLATION

Written & Directed by Edmund C. Short

"Three is a crowd" has never rang more true than in this uncomfortable, darkly funny film. Set in a military lock-down, there is a sadly familiar sense of claustrophobia"

NOCTURNE

Directed by Mark Chavez
Produced by Mark Chavez & Ina Conradi

"An Abstract reflection of our current world, we are shown our darkest but also the happiness to come. Let your mind wander and be absorbed by Nocturne"
